WILSON WILL CARRY HIS FIGHT INTO
ANTI-LEAGUE STRONGHOLDS IN WESTWILL SPEAK IN THIRTY CITIES IN
TWENTY-ONE DIFFERENT STATESSENATE COMMITTEE WILL FINISH WORK
ON TREATY 10 DATE OF PRESIDENT'S
DEPARTURE FROM WASHINGTON

10,000 MILE TRIP IS OUTLINED

BULLETIN: WASHINGTON, August 29—Representative Rodenburg of Illinois today introduced a resolution requesting the President to stay in Washington until the various problems before the country are disposed of. He declared that new laws against the profiteers and adjustment of the railway problem could not be completed if the President were away from Washington. He further declared that the daily questions arising at this critical stage of economic affairs required the presence of the President at his desk.

WASHINGTON, August 29—The itinerary of President Wilson on behalf of the peace treaty and league of nations was officially announced this afternoon. There will be visits to thirty cities in twenty-one states. He will leave Washington on the evening of Wednesday and return at 11 a. m. on September 30. He will be gone twenty-seven days and will travel a total of 10,000 miles. He will go west to Kansas, then north to Nebraska, the Dakotas and Minnesota then to the Pacific coast and return by way of Denver and Oklahoma.

The itinerary indicates that the President will carry his fight into the territory where the opposition to the league is most bitter and make the most speeches in the states where the leaders are against him. His first speeches will be in Ohio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—Next Wednesday, the day of the departure of President Wilson on his tour of the nation seeking for the peace treaty and the league of nations, has been set as the date for finishing committee work on the treaty and covenant by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The committee fears that should the work not be completed by that time the President will go broadcast with the argument that the treaty and league pact are being held up by the committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—Samuel Gompers, President of the A. F. of L. today asked for an appointment with President Wilson. In the absence of any announcement it is understood with the President. It is probable that Mr. Gompers may appeal to the President to use his influence to have Mr. Gary treat with the steel workers committee. Up to this hour Mr. Gary has refused to recognize the committee as representing the steel workers.

The industrial situation in the country today is in the hands of the man in overalls and two powerful forces are being brought to bear on him to maintain a ninety-day truce while the government continues its fight against living costs. The first was a letter from the Railways Department of the A. F. of L. requesting that railroad employees maintain the ninety-day truce. The second was a telegram from Rail Director Hines clearly showing that the government was ready to invoke the aid of the law to prevent strikes during the term of the truce. While leaders are hopeful they are by no means certain that the government program will be accepted. The referendum vote being taken shows that in the early voting the men favored going ahead with the strike by a majority of about eighty per cent. Since that time, however, the letter requesting a ninety-day truce has gone out and this letter is being depended upon to turn the tide. The leaders believe that the conservative element will take the same view of the matter under the circumstances and bring such influence to bear on the radicals that a crisis will be averted. The referendum ballot is to be in writing and secret so that the full return of the vote will not be known for more than a week.

DOUBLE WEDDING
WAS ATTRACTION
AT COURT HOUSE

Justice F. G. Chorpennning presided at a double wedding at Register and Recorder Chase's office at high noon today. The principals at the "double barreled" function were William Rothrock and Vada Peters, of Blue Ball, as couple No. 1, and Foster A. Haines, of Woodland, and Margaret Kennedy, of Wellsboro, Pa., as couple No. 2.

The happy couples had never met before they encountered each other in the Recorder's office while seeking the legal permit to take up family cares and responsibilities regardless of the high cost of living. Mr. Rothrock and his bride, after securing their license, asked Deputy Gulich to summon Squire Chorpennning to perform the ceremony and while the Squire was en his way to the Court House the other loving couple entered and made their vows known.

The young lady clerks in the office were interested (and envious) witnesses to the preparation for the ceremony and when the second couple approached, wishing to have the "agony" over as soon as possible, suggested a double wedding as something out of the ordinary. Judge Chorpennning felt in line with the suggestion and couple No. 1 said they were agreed. No. 2 was then apprised of the state of affairs and the expectant hubby spoke right out and said they would go along and the stage was then prepared for the twin (ceremony only) entangling alliance.

Judge Chorpennning was in his usual good form and after the happy couples had taken up their respective positions he quickly said the words which united the four hearts into two separate units.

Mutual congratulations were exchanged and the happy pairs wended their way from the Court House arm in arm in search of a double wedding dinner which they partook of at Jordan's famous cafe.

FOUR TICKETS FOR AIRSHIP RIDE
ARE
SOLD BY SECRETARY

Secretary Fred B. Read of the Fair association has already sold four tickets for rides with Captain Stickney in his airplane during fair week. This is nothing out of the ordinary and to be expected except that three of the four prospective flyers are women.

Secretary Read in telling the story in The Progress office was rather extolling the ladies for their bravery and their willingness to take a chance, when our office devil broke in with, "Huh, that haint no sign of bravery, them wimmin want to ride in that there airplane purely to satisfy their feminine curiosity and for no other reason." Of course our devil not having arrived at the age of discretion has had very little experience with the gentler sex and no lady should allow his slam to interfere with her desire to sail through the circumambient atmosphere during the first two days of the fair.

DUBOIS BARBERS
DRINK HAIR TONIC;
BOTH ARE DEAD

Two barbers employed at the shop of Joseph Lockwood, of DuBois, are dead as the result of drinking what is believed to be a mixture of tonic-al waters, principally wood alcohol and bay rum. The dead men are:

Lorenzo Draucker, aged 47, died at his home late Wednesday evening at 136 West Long avenue.

J. W. Gaffney, aged 42, died in his room in the Central hotel shortly after 5 o'clock this morning.

In the case of Draucker two physicians were called immediately after Mr. Draucker showed signs of serious illness. They worked over the affected man for some little time, but were unable to do anything that would stay the effects of the wood alcohol which apparently had been taken in liberal doses.

In the Gaffney case a physician was not called until early yesterday morning. At that time the man was so far gone that nothing could be done and he died within a short time after the doctor had been called.

The physicians were unable to determine the precise nature of the affliction, but it is stated that the effects were similar to that of wood alcohol and it is believed that both men consumed considerable of this liquid together with bay rum. It is alleged that both men had been consuming different toilet waters that had alcohol in and it is rather difficult to state just what caused death. There was another member of the party, indulging in the mixture of drinks, but for some reason it did not seriously affect him and he was enabled to go to work yesterday, putting in a full day of labor in digging ditches. It is stated that this young man drank equally as much as any of the others, but this is not likely, as wood alcohol usually proves fatal. Draucker, it is known, went into one of the local drug stores the early part of this week and asked for some bay rum. The proprietor immediately suspected that Draucker wanted the bay rum for the purpose of drinking it, although he stated he wanted it for another purpose.

The proprietor of the store said that he only sold medicated bay rum, that is bay rum containing carbolic acid. That settled the matter as Draucker evidently did not want to drink anything that would possibly result in death. It is stated that the men had been drinking different brands of preparations that contained alcohol and it is rather difficult to state just what did cause their deaths. They were both employed at the Lockwood barber shop and it is alleged that both of them were addicted to drink before the war-time prohibition act went into effect. Following this they took opportunity to drink anything that contained a certain percentage of alcohol. It is declared that the two men did most of the drinking on Sunday and Monday and it was not until Tuesday that the effects of their drinking became apparent. Mr. Draucker was forced to stop work first, going to his home at noon of that day. Mr. Gaffney continued work until Wednesday noon, when he went to his room in the Central hotel. The condition of both men was critical when physicians were called. The physicians do not state just what was the matter. One of the puzzling things in connection with the case is the fact that drinking of wood alcohol causes blindness. Neither man was blind, but it is possible that they did not live sufficiently long after the drinking.

Dr. Draucker is survived by his wife and one daughter. He came here from Brady township. Mr. Gaffney has no relatives living in DuBois. He is said to have a sister in Pittsburgh and a niece in Bellwood. He came here from Mt. Union.—DuBois Courier.

BULLETIN, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—"The treaty of peace now before the people of the United States is merely the truce of Versailles and not a lasting treaty of peace; it does not spell peace but war; war more awful than that which we have just gone through; it lays the foundation for centuries of bloodshed." This characterization of the peace treaty with its attached league of nations was made by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania in a speech before the Senate today. "The more I consider the treaty the more I am convinced that the only way we can deal with it in safety to ourselves is to decline to have a part in it at all. As the facts begin to unfold themselves on the people the more they are beginning to see that the treaty is the machine of those who took it upon themselves to dictate the terms."

At the mass meeting held yesterday early indications were that the men would refuse to return to work but the speech of P. J. McGrath, secretary of the local union turned the tide.

Following their conference with Attorney General Palmer the governors will call on President Wilson. With Palmer the governors are to plan the further details of the campaign.

Keep your lamps all trimmed and dimmed is the new motto of automobile owners.

Some weeks ago Mr. Wilson said: "I find the people of the nation overwhelmingly in favor of the League of Nations." Since that time he has been finding out a few more things.

It is high time that every citizen of the United States give his best thought and attention to two questions of far-reaching consequences and effect. The one is the league of nations and the other is the onward march of revolutionary talk and propaganda. We cannot go into the league of nations without assuming international obligations which may cost dearly in lives and in money. On the other hand the fullest consideration should be given to the claim of league advocates that it will be a war preventative and a remedy for the many international ills. Think it over. It is you who will foot the bills or reap the benefits as the case may be. Of even greater importance is the necessity of putting to rout the paid hirelings of the Bolshevik organization and their disciples who daily tell us that there is going to be a revolution, not because there is any cause, but because they have become fed up on such rot by reading papers and periodicals put out for the purpose of creating dissension and discord. If any one doubts the statements made by Mr. Pierson in an interview printed in this paper yesterday, let him start out and make a few inquiries for himself. He will be surprised to find how many people of this very community are being carried away with the idea that some day soon there will be a revolt. Yes, there will be a revolt, they say but they do not have the least conception of why it should come, what it is for, where they will stand when it comes, what the purpose will be or what will come out of it. Nevertheless they are succumbing to the insidious preaching of the fanatic. Then let our doubter go to the average business man, the home owner and the man who by thrift and industry has accumulated a nest egg of a few hundred dollars of a half dozen Liberty Bonds. Mr. Doubter will find these men ignorant of and indifferent to the fact that there are people who subscribe to the dishonest political principle that property values should be reduced to nothing and that the owner of real and personal property should be overthrown and forced to share the fruits of his frugality with everybody else equally. It is time that we let a few of these "revolution shooters" know that there are some red blooded Americans left.

28 CHILDREN AND NO ROASTING EARS

What is home without a mother? Tough, I'll say. But to the ordinary youngster it is doubly tough when that home has no garden and consequently no roasting ears. Summer time without roasting ears can be compared only to a home without a mother. Many Clearfield people have given little thought to the twenty-eight children at the Children's Home who have neither mothers nor roasting ears to say nothing of the dozens of other varieties of garden produce. Of course the good matron of the Children's Home provides garden produce for the table such as she can buy on the market but it is very much desired that fresh produce from Clearfield gardens be given to the Home. Oh, how those kiddoes will appreciate it. If the reader of this paper will just pause a moment here to form a mental picture of those twenty-eight youngsters around a table of roasting ears, buttered beets sliced tomatoes and other goodies and then reflect that the stuff going to waste in his garden would make this picture real we believe he will lose no time in looking over his garden and preparing a basket full of produce for the Home. A good lady of Clearfield has offered to transport any garden produce to the Home that is offered. Call The Progress and we will have the lady call for it. Needless to say that we do not mind being bothered with telephone calls.

J. D. A. Morrow Tells Senate Committee Such a Combination Would Be Impossible

PRICES AT MINES LOWER
THAN LAST YEAR

Better Grades of Coal Have Advanced
But Lower Grades Declined,
Making Average of All
Grades Less.

Washington (Special).—A combination among bituminous coal operators to maintain or fix prices does not exist and would be impossible if attempted, J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal Association, told the Senate sub-committee in its first day's inquiry here into the coal situation. Prices at the mine, Mr. Morrow added, have declined under the condition which prevails and are lower now than they were a year ago. "There are about 5,000 separate commercial producers operating approximately seven thousand mines, from which bituminous coal is regularly shipped," Mr. Morrow said.

In addition there are some two thousand operators with about three thousand mines, who begin producing and selling coal whenever the price goes up a little and offers a profit to them. Thus, in 1917 coal production was reported to the United States Geological Survey from 16,634 mines. Moreover, there are hundreds of thousands of acres of coal lands along railroads on which new mines can be readily and quickly opened by anyone so disposed.

"Such a condition obviously does not lend itself to restrictive combinations among producers. In addition, the operators of each mining field are subject to competition from the producers of other fields, so that buyers have many different sources of supply available to them.

"Anyone who alleges that there is a nation-wide combination among bituminous coal producers when these are the conditions of bituminous coal production and distribution, merely advertises his own ignorance or convicts himself of deliberate and vicious misstatements.

"Of the five thousand separate bituminous coal producers in the United States, 2,234, approximately 45 per cent, hold membership in the National Coal Association. They produce about sixty per cent of the total output of bituminous coal in the country.

"Charges that the National Coal Association is a combination to maintain prices are without foundation in fact. They doubtless proceed simply from ignorance of its purposes and activities. The National Coal Association neither buys or sells coal;

NO SOFT COAL PRICE COMBINE SAYS WITNESS

Mr. Morrow stated that bituminous coal prices have declined since the armistice, and in general are lower than the prices fixed by the United States Fuel Administration. He submitted charts to the committee, graphically showing the price which bituminous coal sold at the mines in different districts of the United States from April 1 to August 1, 1919. In connection with these charts, Mr. Morrow explained that when the price restrictions of the Fuel Administration were removed on February 1 last, the better, more desirable coals went to a premium in the open competitive market and the less desirable coals declined in price.

"This was the action to be expected, he said, in a market where the buyer exercises his choice and can obtain the kind he prefers. As a result, instead of the uniform prices in different districts which were fixed by the United States Fuel Administration, prices promptly spread out, some coals going higher and some lower than they had been."

"Meaning," Mr. Morrow said, "the cost of producing bituminous coal is higher now than it was a year ago, due to the fact that the mines then were operating six days a week and in many cases now are operating only four days per week, and in some cases only three days per week. The overhead expense of maintaining mines goes on just the same whether coal is produced or not. These idle day expenses have resulted in increased costs per ton as compared with last year. When these increased costs are considered in connection with the general decrease in prices, it is clear that profits of bituminous coal operators are materially less than a year ago."

"Referring to statements by Representative Huddleston, of Alabama, Director General Hines of the Railroad Administration, and others, to the effect that bituminous coal prices at the mines are unduly high, Mr. Morrow said:

"I wish to deny publicly and emphatically these allegations that bituminous coal prices are being maintained in some improper manner and are unduly high. I am convinced that these statements proceed simply from a lack of understanding of the facts. Mr. Morrow drew comparisons between the prices of bituminous coal at the mines in the United States and foreign countries.

"Prices at the mines in Great Britain," he said, "are about three times the mine prices prevalent in the United States; in France the mine prices are more than three and a half times those of the United States. English mine prices range from $6.94 to $7.14 per ton, while bituminous coal in France is costing about $3.7 per ton at the mines. The average price of bituminous coal sold in the United States is in the neighborhood of $2.40 per ton."

Atlantic is packed with pull

BRUTE truck, ponderous load, steep climb—only a powerful, sinewy motor-fuel, packed with pull, can fill the job. Such a motor-fuel is Atlantic Gasoline.

Made from the finest crude oil that flows—made to a definite standard by an organization of refiners with more than fifty years' experience to guide them—Atlantic Gasoline meets the test of the up-grade.

This is attested to by the fact that an overwhelming majority of truck owners in the State use Atlantic Gasoline to the exclusion of all other motor-fuels. And this goes for passenger-cars too. The moral is plain.

DRIGGS THEATRE OPENS SEASON WITH A REAL HEADLINER

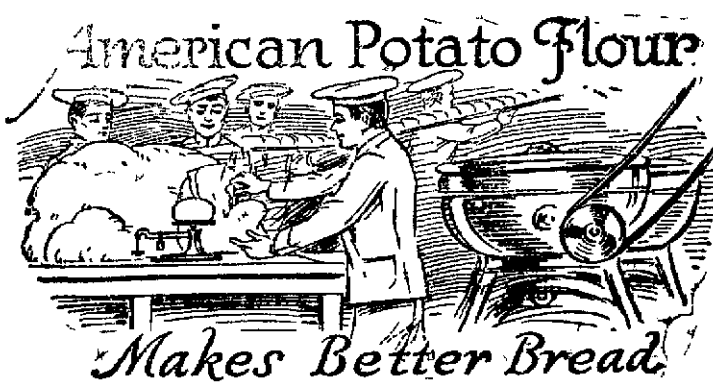

The Adeline Amusement Company, Inc., are presenting Frederick V. Bowers, America's favorite high comedian, in a new musical comedy this year, entitled "Kiss Me Again," and which will have a local showing at the Driggs Theatre on Tuesday night, Sept. 2.

Mr. Bowers who has composed some of the most popular ballads of the past decade will long be remembered for his "Always," "Because," "Wait," "Lucky Jim," "When I Think Of You," and hundreds of others, has written some of the catchiest music of his long career as a song writer, so it is said, for the "Kiss Me Again" entertainment. The music for the following productions were also from his pen, "His Bridal Knight," "McIntyre and Heath in the Ham Tree," "Rogers Brothers," "Sweetest Girl in Paris," "Commencement Days" and "My Cinderella Girl." His new musical comedy contains twenty musical numbers and Mr. Bowers claims that they are as tuneful as anything that he has ever written, "Kiss Me Again," "If I Ever Get You," "Someone," "There's A Dear Little Girl In A Dear Little Town," "My Vampire Girl," "Sahara," "Love Me All The Time," "I Love That Tune," "If You Knew What I Know," "Twilight Dreams," "If I Had Known," "Turn To The Right," and others.

The book is by Walter Hammingway who has furnished the stage some very clever musical comedies in the past and it is said that this newest effort has all the elements of success as it contains animation, fun, vivacity, clever and original lines and a very pretty little love story. The company contains a Peacock Alley chorus which means class in every particular. Seats are now on sale.

In Copenhagen the police convey any person found intoxicated in the street to his home in a cab, the fare being charged to the establishment where the liquor was served.

Only one native species of wild geese breed well in captivity. That is the Canada goose, which, under suitable conditions, can be bred as easily as the ordinary farmyard variety.

(National Crop Improvement Service.)
BAKERS who use potato flour are enthusiastic in its praise. The commercial value of potato flour, owing to its water absorbing and moisture retaining qualities, exceeds its food value considerably because when it is added to other flours it produces better bread and more loaves per barrel, and besides the bread keeps fresh longer because it does not dry out so readily.

The food value of one pound of natural potato flour is 8 cents when wheat flour is worth 6 cents.

In making up a three-barrel batch of dough, with and without American potato flour, the recipes would compare as follows:

No Potato Flour.
600 lbs. flour
No potato flour
836 lbs. water
9 lbs. yeast
10 1/2 lbs. salt

9 lbs. sugar
5 lbs. malt extract
4 1/2 lbs. milk powder
9 lbs. lard
With Potato Flour.
582 lbs. flour
12 lbs. American potato flour
386 lbs. water
8 1/2 lbs. yeast
10 1/2 lbs. salt
7 lbs. sugar
5 lbs. malt extract
No milk powder
7 lbs. lard

While the batch containing American flour would make a few more loaves, it would also save something like $2 in the expense of ingredients per three barrels dough at present prices.

In making potato flour bread at home, use one heaping tablespoonful of American potato flour to each quart of wheat flour. Potato flour should be added to the mixture after the wheat flour.

Acid In Stomach Sours The Food

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we regurgitate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from a pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effecting, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphates. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Few people realize that the manufacture of fancy high-grade butter is becoming extinct in the Eastern states due to a revolution in the Dairy industry. Almost all Butter consumed in the East is being brought in large quantities from the Middle Western states, and does not have the fine fresh flavor imparted by manufacture from fresh sweet cream.

CHAMPION TOMATOES

Mrs. Ezra Brown, of the Third Ward, we believe, can justly lay claim to be the leading tomato grower in this section. Yesterday she gathered five tomatoes from her vines which weighed 7 1-2 pounds, the jumbo of the five tipping the scales at even 2 pounds.

Who can beat that basketful, and tell the truth?

I saw it in The Progress.

Private Bart was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action with the enemy near Medeah, Iran, France, October 3, 1918. Private Bart, being on duty as a company runner, when the advance was held up by machine gun fire, voluntarily picked up an automatic rifle, ran out ahead of the line, and silenced a hostile machine gun nest, killing the German gunners. The advance then continued, and when it was again hindered shortly afterward by another machine gun nest, this courageous soldier repeated his bold exploit by putting the second machine gun out of action. Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens So
Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

August
Blanket Sale

Going Strong---

A Vital Occasion
In Domestic Preparedness & Economy

"In time of warmth prepare for cold" might well and appropriately be applied to this yearly event. A sale without a reason would be like a trolley car without a motor. And the reason of this sale is that so many foresighted people prepare in August for cold snaps that occur from September on.

In planning for this great sale we placed our orders months ago with some of the leading manufacturers in the country although, as you know, wool prices and manufacturing conditions were rather uncertain. Still our foresight placed us in a position where we are now able to meet readjustment conditions with the lowest price possible. The advantages we secured in prices, all go to you now. Note these REMARKABLE VALUES:

COTTON BLANKETS, single bed size in tan, grey and white. August Blanket sale price $1.59

3-4 BED SIZE COTTON BLANKETS, good quality, come in tan, grey and white. August Blanket sale price $2.25

VIOLIN TAUGHT BY A MASTER

The violin department of the Susquehanna College of Music could be under direction of no better instructor than Prof. Oscar W. Schaeffer. Prof. Schaeffer is not only known in this country but also in Europe. He studied and taught in the Royal Conservatory at Liepsic and for several years previous to the war played first violin in the Gewandhaus Orchestra, the world's most accomplished gathering of musicians.

At the time the war broke out Prof. Schaeffer was director in an Illinois National Guard Band, where his work as director stood out head and shoulders above any other band in the guard. Upon being honorably discharged from the service Prof. Schaeffer brought the department up to a standard never before reached.

If you are contemplating the study of this marvelous instrument you could do no better than to place yourself under his direction. Aside from teaching the violin, Prof. Schaeffer also teaches other instruments and his success in this field is evidenced by the steady growth of the department.

The books of the school are now open. Enroll while you have a choice of lesson hours. The Fall term opens on Monday, September 2nd.

KYLER—BLAKE

Mr. Ralph Irwin Kyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kyler, of Clearfield county, and Miss Ethel Marie Blake, of Altoona, were married at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, Aug. 27th at the Eighth Avenue Methodist church of Altoona by the pastor, Rev. George E. Boogs. The bride was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a blue traveling suit and carried bride's roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. G. A. Glenn of Philadelphia, a close friend of the bride, and Mrs. Lora Moran-Anderson sang "O Promise Me". The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blake, the former a brother of the bride. Only immediate relatives and a few friends attended. At the wedding luncheon, which followed the ceremony, the dining room and table at the Blake home were beautifully decorated in yellow and white. Later in the day the couple left on a wedding trip, and, on their return, after Sept. 10, will be at home to their friends at 1203 Sixth avenue, Altoona.

WILSON WILL CARRY HIS FIGHT INTO
ANTI-LEAGUE STRONGHOLDS IN WESTWILL SPEAK IN THIRTY CITIES IN
TWENTY-ONE DIFFERENT STATESSENATE COMMITTEE WILL FINISH WORK
ON TREATY 10 DATE OF PRESIDENT'S
DEPARTURE FROM WASHINGTON

10,000 MILE TRIP IS OUTLINED

BULLETIN: WASHINGTON, August 29—Representative Rodenburg of Illinois today introduced a resolution requesting the President to stay in Washington until the various problems before the country are disposed of. He declared that new laws against the profiteers and adjustment of the railway problem could not be completed if the President were away from Washington. He further declared that the daily questions arising at this critical stage of economic affairs required the presence of the President at his desk.

WASHINGTON, August 29—The itinerary of President Wilson on behalf of the peace treaty and league of nations was officially announced this afternoon. There will be visits to thirty cities in twenty-one states. He will leave Washington on the evening of Wednesday and return at 11 a. m. on September 30. He will be gone twenty-seven days and will travel a total of 10,000 miles. He will go west to Kansas, then north to Nebraska, the Dakotas and Minnesota then to the Pacific coast and return by way of Denver and Oklahoma.

The itinerary indicates that the President will carry his fight into the territory where the opposition to the league is most bitter and make the most speeches in the states where the leaders are against him. His first speeches will be in Ohio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—Next Wednesday, the day of the departure of President Wilson on his tour of the nation seeking for the peace treaty and the league of nations, has been set as the date for finishing committee work on the treaty and covenant by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The committee fears that should the work not be completed by that time the President will go broadcast with the argument that the treaty and league pact are being held up by the committee.

By FRED S. FERGUSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—Samuel Gompers, President of the A. F. of L. today asked for an appointment with President Wilson. In the absence of any announcement it is uation with the President. It is probable that Mr. Gompers may appeal to the President to use his influence to have Mr. Gary treat with the steel workers committee. Up to this hour Mr. Gary has refused to recognize the committee as representing the steel workers.

The industrial situation in the country today is in the hands of the man in overalls and two powerful forces are being brought to bear on him to maintain a ninety-day truce while the government continues its fight against living costs. The first was a letter from the Railways Department of the A. F. of L. requesting that railroad employees maintain the ninety-day truce. The second was a telegram from Rail Director Hines clearly showing that the government was ready to invoke the aid of the law to prevent strikes during the term of the truce. While leaders are hopeful they are by no means certain that the government program will be accepted. The referendum vote being taken shows that in the early voting the men favored going ahead with the strike by a majority of about eighty per cent. Since that time, however, the letter requesting a ninety-day truce has gone out and this letter is being depended upon to turn the tide. The leaders believe that the conservative element will take the same view of the matter under the circumstances and bring such influence to bear on the radicals that a crisis will be averted. The referendum ballot is to be in writing and secret so that the full return of the vote will not be known for more than a week.

DOUBLE WEDDING
AT COURT HOUSE

Justice F. G. Chorpennig presided at a double wedding at Register and Recorder Chase's office at high noon today. The principals at the "double barreled" function were William Rothrock and Vada Peters, of Blue Bell, as couple No. 1, and Foster A. Haines, of Woodland, and Margaret Kennedy, of Wellsboro, Pa., as couple No. 2.

The happy couples had never met before they encountered each other in the Recorder's office while seeking the legal permit to take up family cares and responsibilities regardless of the high cost of living. Mr. Rothrock and his bride, after securing their license, asked Deputy Gulich to summon "Squire Chorpennig to perform the ceremony and while the 'Squire' was on his way to the Court House the other loving couple entered and made their wants known.

The young lady clerks in the office were interested (and envious) witnesses to the preparation for the ceremony and when the second couple approached, wishing to have the "agony" over as soon as possible, suggested a double wedding as something out of the ordinary. Judge Chorpennig felt in line with the suggestion and couple No. 1 said they were agreed. No. 2 was then apprised of the state of affairs and the expectant hubby spoke right out and said they would go along and the stage was then prepared for the twin (ceremony only) entangling alliance.

Judge Chorpennig was in his usual good form and after the happy couples had taken up their respective positions he quickly said the words which united the four hearts into two separate units.

Mutual congratulations were exchanged and the happy pairs wended their way from the Court House arm in arm in search of a double wedding dinner, which they partook of at Jordan's famous cafe.

FOUR TICKETS FOR AIRSHIP RIDE ARE
SOLD BY SECRETARY

Secretary Fred B. Read of the Fair association has already sold four tickets for rides with Captain Stickney in his airplane during fair week. This is nothing out of the ordinary and to be expected except that three of the four prospective flyers are women.

Secretary Read in telling the story in The Progress office was rather extolling the ladies for their bravery and their willingness to take a chance, when our office devil broke in with, "Huh, that haint no sign of bravery, them wimmin want to ride in that there airplane purely to satisfy their feminine curiosity and for no other reason." Of course our devil had arrived at the age of discretion has had very little experience with the gentler sex and no lady should allow his slam to interfere with her desire to sail through the circumambient atmosphere during the first two days of the fair.

DUBOIS BARBERS
DRINK HAIR TONIC;
BOTH ARE DEAD

Two barbers employed at the shop of Joseph Lockwood, of DuBois, are dead as the result of drinking what is believed to be a mixture of tonics, principally wood alcohol and bay rum. The dead men are:

Lorenzo Draucker, aged 47, died at his home late Wednesday evening at 136 West Long avenue.

J. W. Gaffney, aged 42, died in his room in the Central hotel shortly after 5 o'clock this morning.

In the case of Draucker two physicians were called immediately after Mr. Draucker showed signs of serious illness. They worked over the affected man for some little time, but were unable to do anything that would stay the effects of the wood alcohol which apparently had been taken in liberal doses.

In the Gaffney case a physician was not called until early yesterday morning. At that time the man was so far gone that nothing could be done and he died within a short time after the doctor had been called.

The physicians were unable to determine the precise nature of the affliction, but it is stated that the effects were similar to that of wood alcohol and it is believed that both men consumed considerable of this liquid together with bay rum. It is alleged that both men had been consuming different toilet waters that had alcohol in and it is rather difficult to state just what caused death. There was another member of the party, indulging in the mixture of drinks, but for some reason it did not seriously affect him and he was enabled to go to work yesterday, putting in a full day of labor in digging ditch. It is stated that this young man drank equally as much as any of the others, but this is not likely, as wood alcohol usually proves fatal. Draucker, it is known, went into one of the local drug stores the early part of this week and asked for some bay rum. The proprietor immediately suspected that Draucker wanted the bay rum for the purpose of drinking it, although he stated he wanted it for another purpose. The proprietor of the store said that he only sold medicated bay rum, that is bay rum containing carbolic acid. That settled the matter as Draucker evidently did not want to drink anything that would possibly result in death.

It is stated that the men had been drinking different brands of preparations that contained alcohol and it is rather difficult to state just what did cause their deaths. They were both employed at the Lockwood barber shop and it is alleged that both of them were addicted to drink before the war-time prohibition act went into effect. Following this they took opportunity to drink anything that contained a certain percentage of alcohol. It is declared that the two men did most of the drinking on Sunday and Monday and it was not until Tuesday that the effects of their drinking became apparent. Mr. Draucker was forced to stop work first, going to his home at noon of that day. Mr. Gaffney continued work until Wednesday noon, when he went to his room in the Central hotel. The condition of both men was critical when physicians were called. The physicians do not state just what was the matter. One of the puzzling things in connection with the case is the fact that drinking of wood alcohol causes blindness. Neither man was blind, but it is possible that they did not live sufficiently long after the drinking.

Dr. Draucker is survived by his wife and one daughter. He came here from Brady township. Mr. Gaffney has no relatives living in DuBois. He is said to have a sister in Pittsburgh and a niece in Bellwood. He came here from Mt. Union.—DuBois Courier.

BULLETIN, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29—"The treaty of peace now before the people of the United States is merely the truce of Versailles and not a lasting treaty of peace; it does not spell peace but war; war more woeful than that which we have just gone through; it lays the foundation for centuries of bloodshed." This characterization of the peace treaty with its attached league of nations was made by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania in a speech before the Senate today. "The more I consider the treaty the more I am convinced that the only way we can deal with it in safety to ourselves is to decline to have a part in it at all. As the facts begin to unfold themselves on the people the more they are beginning to see that the treaty is the machine of those who took it upon themselves to dictate the terms."

At the mass meeting held yesterday early indications were that the men would refuse to return to work but the speech of P. J. McGrath, secretary of the local union turned the tide.

Keep your lamps all trimmed and dimmed is the new motto of automobile owners.

Some weeks ago Mr. Wilson said: "I find the people of the nation overwhelmingly in favor of the League of Nations." Since that time he has been finding out a few more things.

It is high time that every citizen of the United States give his best thought and attention to two questions of far-reaching consequences and effect. The one is the league of nations and the other is the onward march of revolutionary talk and propaganda. We cannot go into the league of nations without assuming international obligations which may cost dearly in lives and in money. On the other hand the fullest consideration should be given to the claim of league advocates that it will be a war preventative and a remedy for the many international ills. Think it over. It is you who will foot the bills or reap the benefits as the case may be. Of even greater importance is the necessity of putting to rout the paid hirelings of the Bolshevik organization and their disciples who daily tell us that there is going to be a revolution, not because there is any cause, but because they have become fed up on such rot by reading papers and periodicals put out for the purpose of creating dissension and discord. If any one doubts the statements made by Mr. Pierson in an interview printed in this paper yesterday, let him start out and make a few inquiries for himself. He will be surprised to find how many people of this very community are being carried away with the idea that some day soon there will be a revolt. Yes, there will be a revolt, they say but they do not have the least conception of why it should come, what it is for, where they will stand when it comes, what the purpose will be or what will come out of it. Nevertheless they are succumbing to the insidious preaching of the fanatic. Then let our doubter go to the average business man, the home owner and the man who by thrift and industry has accumulated a nest egg of a few hundred dollars of a half dozen Liberty Bonds. Mr. Doubter will find these men ignorant of and indifferent to the fact that there are people who subscribe to the dishonest political principle that property values should be reduced to nothing and that the owner of real and personal property should be overthrown and forced to share the fruits of his frugality with everybody else equally. It is time that we let a few of these "revolution shooters" know that there are some red blooded Americans left.

28 CHILDREN AND NO ROASTING EARS

What is home without a mother? Tough, I'll say. But to the ordinary youngster it is doubly tough when that home has no garden and consequently no roasting ears. Summer time without roasting ears can be compared only to a home without a mother. Many Clearfield people have given little thought to the twenty-eight children at the Children's Home who have neither mothers nor roasting ears to say nothing of the dozens of other varieties of garden produce. Of course the good matron of the Children's Home provides garden produce for the table such as she can buy on the market but it is very much desired that fresh produce from Clearfield gardens be given to the Home. Oh, how those kiddoes will appreciate it. If the reader of this paper will just pause a moment here to form a mental picture of those twenty-eight youngsters around a table of roasting ears, buttered beets sliced tomatoes and other goodies and then reflect that the stuff going to waste in his garden would make this picture real we believe he will lose no time in looking over his garden and preparing a basket full of produce for the Home. A good lady of Clearfield has offered to transport any garden produce to the Home that is offered. Call The Progress and we will have the lady call for it. Needless to say that we do not mind being bothered with telephone calls.

NO SOFT COAL PRICE COMBINE SAYS WITNESS

J. D. A. Morrow Tells Senate Committee Such a Combination Would Be Impossible

PRICES AT MINES LOWER
THAN LAST YEAR

Better Grades of Coal Have Advanced
But Lower Grades Declined,
Making Average of All
Grades Less.

Washington (Special).—A combination among bituminous coal operators to maintain or fix prices does not exist and would be impossible if attempted, J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal Association, told the Senate sub-committee in its first day's inquiry here into the coal situation. Prices at the mine, Mr. Morrow added, have declined under the condition which prevails and are lower now than they were a year ago. "There are about 5,000 separate commercial producers operating approximately seven thousand mines, from which bituminous coal is regularly shipped," Mr. Morrow said.

"In addition there are some two thousand operators with about three thousand mines, who begin producing and selling coal whenever the price goes up a little and offers a profit to them. Thus, in 1917 coal production was reported to the United States Geological Survey from 16,634 mines. Moreover, there are hundreds of thousands of acres of coal lands along railroads on which new mines can be readily and quickly opened by anyone so disposed.

"Such a condition obviously does not lend itself to restrictive combinations among producers. In addition, the operators of each mining field are subject to competition from the producers of other fields, so that buyers have many different sources of supply available to them.

"Anyone who alleges that there is a nation-wide combination among bituminous coal producers when these are the conditions of bituminous coal production and distribution, merely advertises his own ignorance or convicts himself of deliberate and vicious misstatements.

"Of the five thousand separate bituminous coal producers in the United States, 2,234, approximately 45 per cent, hold membership in the National Coal Association. They produce about sixty per cent of the total output of bituminous coal in the country.

"Charges that the National Coal Association is a combination to maintain prices are without foundation in fact. They doubtless proceed simply from ignorance of its purposes and activities. The National Coal Association neither buys or sells coal;

SOFT COAL PRICE COMBINE SAYS WITNESS

Mr. Morrow stated that bituminous coal prices have declined since the armistice, and in general are lower than the prices fixed by the United States Fuel Administration. He submitted charts to the committee, graphically showing the price which bituminous coal sold at the mines in different districts of the United States from April 1 to August 1, 1919. In connection with these charts, Mr. Morrow explained that when the price restrictions of the Fuel Administration were removed on February 1 last, the better, more desirable coals went to a premium in the open competitive market and the less desirable coals declined in price.

"This was the action to be expected, he said, in a market where the buyer exercises his choice and can obtain the kind he prefers. As a result, instead of the uniform prices in different districts which were fixed by the United States Fuel Administration, prices promptly spread out, some coals going higher and some lower than they had been."

"Meaning," Mr. Morrow said, "the cost of producing bituminous coal is higher now than it was a year ago, due to the fact that the mines then were operating six days a week and in many cases now are operating only four days per week, and in some cases only three days per week. The overhead expense of maintaining mines goes on just the same whether coal is produced or not. These idle day expenses have resulted in increased costs per ton as compared with last year. When these increased costs are considered in connection with the general decrease in prices, it is clear that profits of bituminous coal operators are materially less than a year ago."

"Referring to statements by Representative Huddleston, of Alabama, Director General Hines of the Railroad Administration, and others, to the effect that bituminous coal prices at the mines are unduly high, Mr. Morrow said:

"I wish to deny publicly and emphatically these allegations that bituminous coal prices are being maintained in some improper manner and are unduly high. I am convinced that these statements proceed simply from a lack of understanding of the facts. Mr. Morrow drew comparisons between the prices of bituminous coal at the mines in the United States and foreign countries.

"Prices at the mines in Great Britain," he said, "are about three times the mine prices prevalent in the United States; in France the mine prices are more than three and a half times those of the United States. English mine prices range from $6.94 to $7.14 per ton, while bituminous coal in France is costing about $3.7 per ton at the mines. The average price of bituminous coal sold in the United States is in the neighborhood of $2.40 per ton."

DRIGGS THEATRE OPENS SEASON WITH A REAL HEADLINER

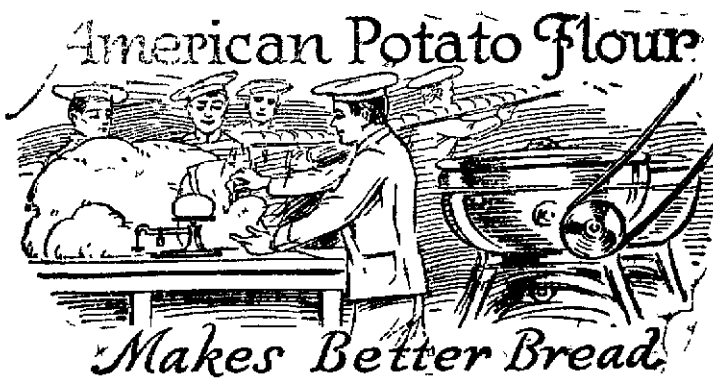

The Adeline Amusement Company, Inc., are presenting Frederick V. Bowers, America's favorite high comedian, in a new musical comedy this year, entitled "Kiss Me Again," and which will have a local showing at the Driggs Theatre on Tuesday night, Sept. 2.

Mr. Bowers who has composed some of the most popular ballads of the past decade will long be remembered for his "Always," "Because," "Wait," "Lucky Jim," "When I Think Of You," and hundreds of others, has written some of the catchiest music of his long career as a song writer, so it is said, for the "Kiss Me Again" entertainment. The music for the following productions were also from his pen, "His Bridal Knight," "McIntyre and Heath in the Ham Tree," "Rogers Brothers," "Sweetest Girl in Paris," "Commencement Days" and "My Cinderella Girl." His new musical comedy contains twenty musical numbers and Mr. Bowers claims that they are as tuneful as anything that he has ever written, "Kiss Me Again," "If I Ever Get You," "Someone," "There's A Dear Little Girl In A Dear Little Town," "My Vampire Girl," "Sahara," "Love Me All The Time," "I Love That Tune," "If You Knew What I Know," "Twilight Dreams," "If I Had Known," "Turn To The Right," and others.

The book is by Walter Hammingway who has furnished the stage some very clever musical comedies in the past and it is said that this newest efforts have all the elements of success as it contains animation, fun, vivacity, clever and original lines and a very pretty little love story. The company contains a Peacock Alley chorus which means class in every particular. Seats are now on sale.

In Copenhagen the police convey any person found intoxicated in the street to his home in a cab, the fare being charged to the establishment where the liquor was served.

Only one native species of wild geese breed well in captivity. That is the Canada goose, which, under suitable conditions, can be bred as easily as the ordinary farmyard variety.

(National Crop Improvement Service.)
BAKERS who use potato flour are enthusiastic in its praise. The commercial value of potato flour, owing to its water absorbing and moisture retaining qualities, exceeds its food value considerably because when it is added to other flours it produces better bread and more loaves per barrel, and besides the bread keeps fresh longer because it does not dry out so readily.

The food value of one pound of natural potato flour is 8 cents when wheat flour is worth 6 cents.

In making up a three-barrel batch of dough, with and without American potato flour, the recipes would compare as follows:

No Potato Flour.
600 lbs. flour
836 lbs. water
9 lbs. yeast
10 1/2 lbs. salt

9 lbs. sugar
5 lbs. malt extract
4 1/2 lbs. milk powder
9 lbs. lard
With Potato Flour.
582 lbs. flour
12 lbs. American potato flour
386 lbs. water
8 1/2 lbs. yeast
10 1/2 lbs. salt
7 lbs. sugar
5 lbs. malt extract
No milk powder
7 lbs. lard

While the batch containing American flour would make a few more loaves, it would also save something like $2 in the expense of ingredients per three barrels dough at present prices.

In making potato flour bread at home, use one heaping tablespoonful of American potato flour to each quart of wheat flour. Potato flour should be added to the mixture after the wheat flour.

The Hog Show

1919 Swine Show.
(National Crop Improvement Service.)
THE National Swine Growers' association will hold its annual swine show and exhibition at Des Moines, Ia., September 20 to October 4. Entries close September 13.

Nearly twenty thousand dollars is offered in prizes. Arrangements have been made with the Iowa State Fair to utilize all of the buildings and equipment, which will give ample space and accommodations.

The National Swine show is a round-up of the best hogs of the various breeds as well as a full exhibition of allied lines, such as feed, equipment, experimental work, meat and meat demonstrations, judging, etc.

County agents are especially invited to give close attention to this show and to make county farm bureau exhibits, either collectively or individually by the owners.

Acid In Stomach Sours The Food

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we regurgitate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from a pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effecting, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphates. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens So
Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

August
Blanket Sale

Going Strong---

A Vital Occasion
In Domestic Preparedness & Economy

"In time of warmth prepare for cold" might well and appropriately be applied to this yearly event. A sale without a reason would be like a trolley car without a motor. And the reason of this sale is that so many foresighted people prepare in August for cold snaps that occur from September on.

In planning for this great sale we placed our orders months ago with some of the leading manufacturers in the country although, as you know, wool prices and manufacturing conditions were rather uncertain. Still our foresight placed us in a position where we are now able to meet readjustment conditions with the lowest price possible. The advantages we secured in prices, all go to you now. Note these REMARKABLE VALUES:

COTTON BLANKETS, single bed size in tan, grey and white. August Blanket sale price $1.59

VIOLIN TAUGHT BY A MASTER

The violin department of the Susquehanna College of Music could be under direction of no better instructor than Prof. Oscar W. Schaeffer. Prof. Schaeffer is not only known in this country but also in Europe. He studied and taught in the Royal Conservatory at Liepsic and for several years previous to the war played first violin in the Gewandhaus Orchestra, the world's most accomplished gathering of musicians.

At the time the war broke out Prof. Schaeffer was director in an Illinois National Guard Band, where his work as director stood out head and shoulders above any other band in the guard. Upon being honorably discharged from the service Prof. Schaeffer brought the department up to a standard never before reached.

If you are contemplating the study of this marvelous instrument you could do no better than to place yourself under his direction. Aside from teaching the violin, Prof. Schaeffer also teaches other instruments and his success in this field is evidenced by the steady growth of the department.

The books of the school are now open. Enroll while you have a choice of lesson hours. The Fall term opens on Monday, September 2nd.

KYLER—BLAKE

Mr. Ralph Irwin Kyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kyler, of Clearfield county, and Miss Ethel Marie Blake, of Altoona, were married at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, Aug. 27th at the Eighth Avenue Methodist church of Altoona by the pastor, Rev. George E. Boogs. The bride was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a blue traveling suit and carried bride's roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. G. A. Glenn of Philadelphia, a close friend of the bride, and Mrs. Lora Moran-Anderson sang "O Promise Me". The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blake, the former a brother of the bride. Only immediate relatives and a few friends attended. At the wedding luncheon, which followed the ceremony, the dining room and table at the Blake home were beautifully decorated in yellow and white. Later in the day the couple left on a wedding trip, and, on their return, after Sept. 10, will be at home to their friends at 1203 Sixth avenue, Altoona.
